

City of Detroit
Department of Recreation Performance Audit
Exhibit 2 – Chandler Park

Tennis Courts

Overall Evaluation – Poor Condition

- Of six courts, not one had a net.
- Playing surface area was cracked with grass growing through.
- Trash and debris appear to have been there for a while.
- Area surrounding tennis courts was poorly maintained.

This tennis court had cracked surfaces with grass growing through. The area surrounding the court was poorly maintained.

Neither courts had nets. Playing surfaces were cracked with grass growing through and discarded trash and debris.

City of Detroit
Department of Recreation Performance Audit
Exhibit 2 – Chandler Park

Shelter

Overall Evaluation – Fair Condition

There was one shelter at Chandler Park.

The area around the shelter was generally clean, however, trash and debris which appear to have been recently discarded could be seen. The grass was cut.

City of Detroit
Department of Recreation Performance Audit
Exhibit 2 – Chandler Park

The area inside the shelter was generally clean. The floor needed to be washed. The wall had graffiti on it.